Joint Faculty Recruitment of School of Economics and Management, and Shenzhen International Graduate School, Tsinghua University

POSITIONS

Assistant/Associate/Full Professor in the broad theme area of innovation management covering all economics and management disciplines

ORGANIZATIONS

School of Economics and Management, Tsinghua University
Shenzhen International Graduate School, Tsinghua University

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATIONS

Tsinghua University is one of the most prestigious universities in China. Tsinghua University School of Economics and Management (Tsinghua SEM), was established in 1984 with Premier ZHU Rongji as the founding dean. As the first AACSB-accredited school in mainland China, Tsinghua SEM is known as a leading school of economics and management in China and Asia Pacific region. It has 7 departments with more than 160 full-time faculty members in accounting, economics, finance, innovation, entrepreneurship and strategy, leadership and organization management, management science and engineering, and marketing. With its mission to advance knowledge and cultivate leaders for China and the world, the School enrolls over 6000 students in the undergraduate, master's, doctoral, MBA and EMBA programs.

Tsinghua Shenzhen International Graduate School (Tsinghua SIGS), the one and only campus of Tsinghua outside of Beijing, was launched in Shenzhen, the heart of the vibrant Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area in March 2019. SIGS aims at bringing together world-class faculty members and postgraduate students, tackling global challenges through cutting-edge research and international collaborations, nurturing the next generations of global leaders. Committed to building itself into a world-class graduate school, Tsinghua SIGS will work closely with enterprises in the Greater Bay Area, and prepare future technology innovators, scientists, and entrepreneurs through innovative graduate programs.

POSITIONS SUMMARY

Tsinghua SEM, in collaboration with SIGS invites applications for multiple tenured and tenure-track faculty openings from all economics and management disciplines in the broad theme area of innovation management. Promising young talents or well-established professors are all welcome and appointments at all ranks will be considered.

Based in Shenzhen, the most open and economically vibrant city in China, these faculty positions will be appointed jointly by Tsinghua SEM and SIGS. We are particularly interested in candidates who can foster truly cross-discipline work with engineering and other disciplines. All appointments require full-time obligations at Tsinghua University, and have the same faculty status as the Tsinghua SEM Beijing faculty.

We provide a highly supportive research and teaching environment, attractive and ample research funding, strong teaching support staff and state-of-art facilities. Globally competitive salary package, housing allowances and benefits will be offered. All positions are immediately available and open globally.

QUALIFICATIONS

The following qualifications and credentials will be considered:

1. Strong record of teaching, research and publications.
2. A doctoral degree in economics, finance, management, or other relevant academic area is required.
3. Research excellence and strong teaching performance are expected.

APPLICATION

To apply, please send an application cover letter, CV (including a list of publications and working papers), three letters of reference (apart from tenured positions), evidence of research and teaching excellence, selected articles or working papers to scholar@sem.tsinghua.edu.cn (subject line: Application for Faculty Position at Tsinghua SEM Shenzhen).

Screening of candidates will start immediately and will continue until the positions are filled.
